

2005 NHS Annual Awards Dinner

The NHS Annual Awards Dinner was held on Thursday, March 3, 2005, at Navy Pier with leaders from banking, insurance, real estate, and other industries from around Chicago in attendance. FlagShip Integration Services' president Kim Flagstad has worked with NHS for many years and FlagShip was recognized as a Home Builders Dinner Sponsor. Representing FlagShip Integration Services this year were engineers Dale Kirby, Dave Stone, Ryan Hanisco, Janet Paluch, Bill Borgstrom, Operations Manager Jim Hill and Chief Financial Officer Michael Calumet.

In recent years, FlagShip has participated in the NHS Annual Awards dinner which recognizes outstanding community leadership in rebuilding urban neighborhoods. This year, Michael H. Moskow, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, was honored with the Gale Cincotta NHS Partnership Award, in recognition of his efforts to help rebuild urban neighborhoods, a relationship with NHS that began more than 30 years ago. This year's 2004 Neighborhood Leadership Awards were presented to Juanita Love, Rafael Yanez, Earl Johnson, Samuel H. Flowers, Ruby L. Larkin, Dr. Maria Rudisch, Ray Joiner, Carrie Siller, Evelyn Wingard and Rosetta Guy.

This annual dinner provides the opportunity for all of NHS's partners to come together in celebration of ongoing success and to raise funds to continue future works.

“Neighborhood Housing Services of Chicago, Inc. is a nonprofit organization working to rebuild low- and moderate-income neighborhoods in the city of Chicago that are experiencing deterioration and disinvestment. Formed in 1975, NHS stimulates community investment through a partnership of residents, business, and government. NHS's mission is to rekindle hope in a neighborhood's future, to restore conventional and local investment in the community, and to leave behind empowered, self-reliant residents.”

FlagShip Integration Services, Inc. will continue its long-standing partnership with NHS in years to come and looks forward to next year's awards dinner.
